

Ironville Parish Council

Policy for Granting of the Honorary Freedom of the Parish

1. Introduction

1.1 This document sets out the criteria, procedure and arrangements relating to the selection and appointment process for the Granting of Freedom of the Parish of Ironville to individuals.

2. Granting the Freedom of the Parish

2.1 Granting the Freedom of the Parish is the highest honour that the Parish Council can bestow. Although it carries no powers, rights, or privileges, those who receive the honour are able to use the title of Freeman or Freewomen.

2.2 As this is the highest honour that the Parish Council can grant, it should be used sparingly and should not be given too often in order to preserve its status and value.

2.3 The award of the Freedom of the Parish is separate to the Parish Council's Community Hero Award.

3. Criteria

3.1 There is no statutory guidance that sets out any criteria for the appointment of Freemen and Freewomen.

3.2 As the Freedom of the Parish is awarded in recognition of exceptional service to the Parish, it would be inappropriate to set out strict judging criteria. However, when considering a person, or persons, for Freedom of the Parish of IRONVILLE the following should be considered:

- There must be, or have been, a strong and continuing connection with and commitment to the Parish, or
- The person or persons will be making, or have made, a major contribution to Parish life and in doing so have enhanced the reputation of the parish.

3.3 The commitment, or contribution, to the community will be expected to have been:

- delivered in a way that has brought distinction to Parish life and enhanced the Parish's reputation in the area or activity concerned,
- contributed in a way to improve the lives of those less able to help themselves, in particular the young, the elderly and vulnerable persons living within the Parish; or
- demonstrated innovation and entrepreneurship which is delivering results in the Parish.

3.4 The title will not be conferred, or considered, for a member, contractor, or employee of the council whilst still acting as a Councillor, contractor, or employee.

4. Cost

4.1 Section 249 (9) of Local Government Act 1972 allows Councils to spend “such reasonable sum as it thinks fit” on presenting a casket or address to a Honorary Freeman or Honorary Freewoman.

4.2 The Parish Council has determined that in order to mark the award of Freedom of the Parish, a framed commemorative ‘scroll’ or certificate will be provided to the recipient.

5. Procedure for Granting of Freedom of Ironville

  - (c) members of Council may ask questions (with the agreement of the Chair), to the member of the public who is speaking, however, questions to the member of the public who is speaking, from other members of the public are not permitted.
- The public and any press shall then be excluded from the meeting.

- If the Council passes the resolution by no less than a 2/3rds majority then the resolution shall be recorded in the Council Minutes in the usual way.

5.8 If the motion is passed, the Chair in consultation with the Parish Clerk shall then make arrangements for the formal presentation of the 'Freedom' which will be marked by the giving of a framed certificate in a public and dignified way. Photographs should be taken to record the event, assuming the recipient is happy for this to happen, and placed on the Council's website.

5.9 The roll of Honorary Freemen / Freewomen shall be maintained by the Parish Clerk.

6. Legislation
